“ Brandon, I remember the first show I played with ya Man, it was Bob Dylan 'How does it feel, to be on Your own, with no direction told'. I remember that song stuck with Me and I knew He would be a Rock Star one day. I really have so much to say about Him in terms of how cool He was to someone to look up to in the Rock in scene more so as a Leader in the Music. It was his expression, it was His personality all the hardships to good times thrown at the audience in a segment on a video. Really cool to watch Him pour out His emotions. Not fair He's gone, all of US that knew Him and hung out with Him knew He needed someone to talk to the last couple of Months that was a Leader in the local community because I feel He was too smart for most people that hung around him outside Our circle of Friends.

“ Brandon had a gentle soul and he would light up a room whenever he entered. Beyond the door there's peace I'm sure, and I know there'll be no more tears in heaven.

“ I only got to meet him once and he just talked up a storm, very friendly. So very sorry to hear of his passing I'm sure his family and friends will miss him greatly it's very sad when someone is going through pain and you're unable to get through to them.
