“ Jane and family, Richard and I are so sorry for your loss. Seeing Dan at church every Sunday added an extra light to the day. We pray for you to overcome this loss knowing your faith will help. Jane, consider yourself hugged

“ Sis. Jane I know there are not enough words to resolve the feeling of loss, but I know that there is ONE who can bring and give peace when no one or anything else can. His grace is sufficient for thee: for his strength is made perfect in weakness. Just know that your cousin and his family love you and your family. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

“ He was a loving man. He always was happy to see me at church and always stopped me before him leaving to say he loves me. Mrs Jane and Mr Daniel, they always checked on me, sent me cards and even called my mom to see how I was when I had my surgeries. I love them as if they are grandparents to me. I'm so sorry Mrs Jane for your loss. I love you.

“ Jane, we are so very sorry for your loss! Daniel was a truly special person; he took to Darren immediately and treated him like he was family, from the first time they tried to put up a tent together at a Village event and every time after that. Your love was evident in your hugs whenever we saw you both and we will feel his absence keenly. I appreciated all of the times you checked up on me while Darren was deployed, and continued to check on us both every time either of us were at church. I will miss Daniel's hugs! Please let us know if we can do anything for you, now or in the future! We love you!

“ To Jane and family, Donnie, Angela, Barbara, Diane (my best friend) and all their families: We the Maples families want you to know how sad and sorry we are of Daniel's passing. We know what it's like because we lost 2 sisters within 10 months. But the Lord Jesus Christ holds us up and always is here to lift our spirits up every day. Know that many people are praying for you and thinking of you. Daniel was a great inspiration to so many other people. He is in the best place now with no more pain and suffering. When your family gets together to enjoy each other (maybe over of pot luck dinner), you will remember all those good times and hard times, and laugh so hard it makes your tummy hurt. May God continue to be with you all and bless you as He has in the past. Your friends, the Maples families who all went to The Blythewood High School.

“ I have so many fond memories of Uncle Daniel being a special part of my life. I remember how he would drink coffee and I'd get me a cup too. He would then talk with me, spend time with me, and make me laugh, he instinctively knew those were important to a child's heart. .. He also taught me to build things and he loved to help others an impression that has stuck with me throughout my life. He used to remind me of poppye because of his strength for his size. He knocked many softballs over the fence, and sometimes I felt the kids were his spinach to make them fly away. He was fast as a rabbit as well running the bases. Everyone that knew him, knows the world lost a great man who loves the Lord, yet we know he is in a better place. I know how much he loved his family already gone, and I am sure he is catching up. I love all of you and will be in prayer.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I have to say goodbye to one of the best men I've ever known, my uncle Daniel. All his nephews favorite uncle, he was so much more to me. Next to my own father , his guidance in life as a man was the biggest influence on me. He was fun , generous , humble and tough as they come. A super athlete , fast as lightning and strong as an ox, he was the one competitors and onlookers would ask “who is that guy” . Daniel was there for me each time I needed uplifting words in the most trying times of my life. He was a constant soothing mentor when I needed one . I will miss our talks across the fence when he and Jane would take their daily walk. Our last interaction was the Monday afternoon , before he went to the hospital that night. The “old man” and his nephew, after a few laughs , we told each “ love you” . Oh, how I'm gonna miss my uncle Daniel, Rest In Peace.

“ While sadness abounds over the loss of Uncle Danny, memories are also flooding into my heart of the wonderful joy that came from spending time with Danny and Jane as we were in our formative years. Growing up far away from Blythewood, our visits to see our Fulmer family has always been filled with happiness and love and we have been blessed to grow up with the loving, sweet souls of all of the Fulmer's. Today we mourn Danny, one of the sweetest souls I've ever known.

Jane, please know that our prayers are being sent to you, Stephanie and Dana as well as to mom, Aunt Diane, Aunt Bobbie and Uncle Donnie. We love you all and mourn the loss of Uncle Danny. We will all gather together again some day in Glory and when we do, I am bringing the banana pudding!

Todd Bates - March 26, 2020 at 05:55 PM

“ My sincere condolences to Jane and the family. I always used to look forward to spending time, however brief, with Daniel bc there was going to be laughter. I remember him as a practical joker with something up his sleeve for some unsuspecting “victim”. May he Rest In Peace.

Don Mattox - March 26, 2020 at 05:47 PM

“ Uncle Daniel, one of the greatest compliments that I have ever received was a family member saying “ you remind me of Uncle Daniel.”
I have known and loved you my whole life!
Will see you up there!!!

Jerry Bates - March 26, 2020 at 04:34 PM

“ We will always remember the good times we had getting together. Daniel will be missed by everyone at our class reunions. I am so glad that we got the chance to enjoy lunch together recently. We will keep the family in our prayers.
