“ Denese, you were loved so very deeply. And although we we separated by so many miles for so very long, your spirit, your influence, your motivating essence was always there and helped me to become what I am. I love you, as I do your three beautiful children. Until we meet again.

Your brother, Jeffery

“ I believe I remember that Mom liked butterflies. They are such delicate, graceful, and beautiful creatures. I KNOW they'll be present in heaven. Ever since I met Mom, I can't see a butterfly without thinking of her EVERY time! Now, Mom is sitting at the Masters feet, beginning her journey into eternity. I will surely miss her. I know all of you are so proud of your Mom. She and I shared about what it meant to be "single Moms". It isn't easy, but with love and perseverance, not caring what the "experts" say...we persevered. And I believe we both "beat the odds" and produced wonderful, caring, and spiritual children. A credit to the society we live in. My heartfelt sympathy to you all...but especially to my long-time friend, Christine...who took exquisite care of Mom for over 10 years. God bless you for that! All my love and respect, Lea
