

Mrs. Iris Jean Deaton

September 15, 1930 - December 31, 2021

Iris J. Deaton, 91, of Irmo, SC, died on Friday, December 31, 2021. Born September 15, 1930, in Buckhorn, KY, she was daughter of the late Yancy Amis and Alva Cornet Amis.

A Red Cross volunteer for many years, Ms. Iris was also an avid quilter who was a member of the quilter's guild and various art groups. She was a long-time member of St. Luke United Methodist Church and at one time served as a youth group leader.

Survivors include her loving husband, Doy Deaton; sons, Michael D. Deaton, Donald M. Deaton (Carrie); grandchildren, Joel, and Caroline Deaton; along with her longtime friend, Kathleen Carter.

The graveside service for Ms. Iris will be held at 12 o'clock, Thursday, January 6, 2022 at Fort Jackson National Cemetery, 4170 Percival Road, Columbia, SC with the Rev. Joe Copeland officiating. The family will greet friends briefly following the service. All are welcome to attend, and a livestream will be available on her tribute wall at ShivesFuneralHome.com.

“ To Iris' family, I'm so sorry to hear about her death. We were quilting friends, and traveled to the same quilting retreats. I tried to find her last year to chat but I couldn't find her. Iris was so smart, I'd call her, "oh wise one." She is now with Pauline & Ed Moore.

She will always have a place in my heart.

“ Doy, Mike and Donnie: So sorry to hear about Ms. Iris passing away. She was such a beautiful lady always willing to help anyone and always checking on her friends. We have shared so many good times with you all at St. Luke UMC and we too will miss her. May you all find comfort and peace knowing she is with her heavenly father. Prayers to each of you.
