“ Rowena was a lovely lady I met at Fairlawn Methodist Church. My Mother, Beatrice Pardee, enjoyed our visits with Rowena. We shared recipes and enjoyed being together.
May the Lord share his comfort with her family and give you his Peace.

“ My head is still spinning from the events that have unfolded these last few weeks. The fact that you have left us hasn't truly registered yet. I'm grateful for the time that we had together and for the memories that we share. I will miss our phone chats and laughter. I will miss you. Karen. PS the girls will watch over Andy.

“ I met Rowena when I was 16 years old playing handbells in the church. We became besties despite the differences in generations. One of my fondest memories was when she would make me fudge when I was pregnant because I craved hers. So blessed to have known her and have been known by her.

“ Rowena was such a sweet lady and we will miss her. I guess another Angel was needed.

“ I have a sweet memory of Rowena & "my stripe-y shoes". We were in choir practice one day & I'd chosen to wear my casual canvas red & white striped sale shoes (probably from Ross or Burlington Coat Factory). She made a comment, "Well, look at you in those cute little stripe-y shoes." She was so fun & kind & warm. I have a soft spot in my heart for her. She was so pleasant to be around.--Loudene Kirkegaard
