“ When I think of Mrs. Weeks, I remember her kind and gentle spirit. I loved that twinkle in her eye and precious smile that seemed to be a permanent part of her beautiful face. She had the gift of making others feel special and she was quick to say I love you. I was so blessed to have known her. A woman who raises 7 children also has to have a bit of warrior in her (strength, honor, compassion and faith!) She loved Jesus, her husband, children and grandchildren. While those of us she left behind will have deep holes in our heart, I know she is in heaven with her Savior, her husband, her grandson and others who she knew and loved. What a day of rejoicing it will be when we all get to heaven! See you on the other side, dear Mrs. Weeks! I love you!

“ I'll always remember Margaret ("Pym") and Jimmy. When our family made the yearly visit to Columbia to see DaDa (my grandmother Dorothea) and Grandpop, we always enjoyed visiting the Week's family. My memories are that Margaret always seemed happy and bright eyed and glad to see you. She will always be my image of a true Southern Lady. She will be missed. I am so sorry for what she suffered, but happy in that I know she is in a better place.

Sincerest Sympathies,

“ I did not have the pleasure of meeting the beloved Mrs. Weeks, but I have have an idea of what she was like because of my long-time friendship with her daughter, Jane.

Jane and I were colleagues for nearly two decades during my pre-RIF time at USC Publications. Our friendship continues to this day. When I met Jane, I told her she looks like the lady on the hair-color box. I now see that she favors her mother.

Deepest condolences and blessed assurance to all.

“ Throughout the many years I have known Mrs. Weeks, she has not changed. She had a way of making you feel warm and welcome in her home. She always greeted me with a welcoming smile making me feel special, even if years had gone by. She was a sharp and classy lady. I loved it when she would giggle about little things smiling with her eyes looking so innocent and sweet. She and Mr. Weeks loved their children well and brought them all up to know Jesus as their savior. I can imagine the Lord saying, “welcome home my good and faithful servant .” As we celebrate her life, she leaves a legacy in her children that continues here on earth. I am much appreciative to Jane for sharing her sweet Mother with me. The memories are a treasure. Our love, prayers and sympathy go out to all the family as we know there is a hole in your heart and you will miss her terribly. Love to Jane, George, Eddie, Suzanne, Kathy, Libby and Rene! Ya’ll are in our hearts and prayers. Love Beverly and Mike Whalen

“ If ever there was a Proverbs 31 woman who was a shining example of Jesus Christ, It is Mrs. Margaret Weeks. I have watched her walk over the years in the consistency and sweet kindness of Jesus. My greatest memory is her voice. I always love to visit with her and listen to her precious tales because her voice has such a loving rhythm and sound to it. What came from her mouth was the treasures of her heart and that always included her Savior, her Mr. Jimmy, her family and her church. Her family demonstrates true love to me. Caring for one another sacrificially is a theme in the Weeks, Davis, and all of the siblings families. What a ripple affect of the testimony of Christ flowing out into each family and their extended families which include Mrs Weeks grandchildren including precious Patrick Davis, who went before her to assist Mr Jimmy in ushering her into her mansion in heaven. I'm sure there is a pew in one of her rooms that needed a luster and shine that Patrick and Mr Jimmy polished up for her arrival gift. What a homecoming they are enjoying with their Lord and Savior!

I am sure this testimony of love will never cease because of how grounded it is in faith and love.

Our heartfelt prayers and frequent thoughts are with each and everyone of you in this dear dear family.

May each of you feel a warm hug from our Heavenly Comforter as you read this note.

In Christ's Love and Many Blessings Prayed for each of you,
Mrs. Debbie Fagan

“ Our heartfelt condolence goes to this wonderful family. Although death is never something we as humans can ever accept with great sorrow this sorrow is soon engulfed in unbelievable peace soon. When our loved one is a devout Christian woman as Ms. Weeks was it is felt in your heart and in your spirit this peace that passes all understanding. We are neighbors to Ms. Weeks daughter, Jane Jeffcoat, and we witnessed true love in action and in deed when Jane tirelessly went daily to assist her sweet little mother. Jane was faithful in her support for as long as we have been blessed to call her and Charlie friends. We often thought how wonderful Charlie too supported Jane by standing along side her through many months of loving care for her mother. We are saddened by her passing but I hope the Weeks family will realize soon that their joy comes in the morning. May you all be blessed with with peace and joy that she is now starting her eternal life. In His Love,

“ Dear Children,
How blessed you all are to have had such a precious, loving, godly mother. Suzanne, I have happy memories of the times we spent together while Wayne was in Viet Nam. How many times did we put 50 cents in your reserve tank to keep your little "Bug" going just a little longer? Thank you for being there for me. Praying for comfort for all of you and for all those who loved your mother...
