Been knowing of Mark since my girls were kids and went to church and school with him. Gary, little Sunbeam would sing in church.

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Mark’s passing. I hadn’t seen him in quite some time but have very fond memories of him. I will always remember his grin when something amused him. Thoughts and prayers with you all.

“ To the family of Mark I'm so sorry to hear of Mark's passing. I wasn't around him that much but I really liked him. He would always come through the Walmart garcenter gate to see me. I've just had plates put in my knee. For those that don't know me I'm Denny's son. God Bless you all and please seek after the lord for your comfort and peace. He said he would leave us peace when he returned to heaven. That peace still dwells here today it's called the Holy Spirit. GOD BLESS YOU ALL. love Steven D Moak

“ Mark had a temper at times. One of my funniest memories of him was him chasing a man around the outside of his restaurant in broad daylight for not paying him properly for doing a job for him. This may be politically incorrect-but the man was an immigrant and Mark said that even though he couldn't speak very good English he knew what money was and Mark wanted his! I just couldn't help but to bust out laughing at the whole scene and even though he didn't get the rest of the money owed we both had a good laugh about it again later. For all his tough talk though-Mark was a big softie inside. He loved animals- especially wolves, Native American culture, and helping his little niece "Doodlebug" in her garden. He was the best driver I've ever known-very steady and didn't speed often. The last 7 and 1/2 years he became an integral part of my life and we had many adventures together. We had a lot of good times, quite a few bad times and some crazy times-but as you all know for the people he loved he would always be there for you. He was my man and my friend and I loved him. I still do. R.I.P. Mark.
