“ Our cousin, Libby, never had a harsh word to say about anyone all the years of our growing up. She had a kind heart, a gentle touch, and an angel's smile.

“ Will miss my friend - truly one of a kind - but I know she's having a grand time in Heaven - will miss her laughter, and definitely her funny sense of humor....

“ Libbie was one of a kind. She was my confidant, sounding board, best friend and the only person that could make me laugh when all I wanted to do was cry. I'm grateful in knowing that she is with our Lord and no longer in pain. Thanks to Butch, I was able to hold her hand and pray with her, tell her that I love her and hear her say it back on the day our Glorious Lord decided that it was time for her to come home.

“ When you entered Heaven
did you walk or did you break into a run?
Even though you'd never been there did it feel like home already?
Were you welcomed by the Father and the Son?
Did you bow in humble reverence
just to stand there in their presence?
Did they take you in their arms in sweet embrace?
