

Ms. Sabra Coward Lott

November 16, 1967 - January 13, 2021

It is with broken hearts that the family of Sabra Anne Coward Lott, a.k.a Bubbles the Blythewood Beauty Queen, announces her tragic passing on Wednesday, January 13, 2021.

Sabra was born on November 16, 1967, to Rudy and Anne Coward in Columbia SC. She was a life-long resident of the Blythewood and Columbia communities. She was a graduate of Spring Valley High School, Class of 1986. Sabra went on to receive a Bachelor of Arts degree majoring in drama at Columbia College. She worked in the radio industry for over 25 years, most recently, as a member of the Alpha Media family.

Sabra was known for her larger-than-life personality which was on full display as Bubbles the Blythewood Beauty Queen radio personality in the early 1990's on WNOK-FM. Her love for life was undeniable and her smile and laughter was contagious to everyone who knew her. Her GIGANTIC personality outshined her petite stature, lighting up every room she entered. Sabra's generosity extended far beyond family and friends. Her charitable heart made everyone feel special and loved. She was known for her exquisite style, artistic ability, and passion for shopping. Sabra had a flare for putting a unique spin on everything she touched. The mold was broken when Sabra was born!

Sabra's biggest achievement in life is her daughter, Mckenzie Anne Lott. Of all of her talents, her best work was done raising her beautiful daughter. The bond she has with Mckenzie is unbreakable. The love they share is eternal. Her legacy will live on through McKenzie.

Along with her daughter, Mckenzie, Sabra will be lovingly remembered by her life partner, Bill Goodwin; devoted mother, Anne Coward; brothers, Mark (Stephanie Hammond) and Michael (Rhonda) Coward; niece, Gabrielle Coward; nephews, Kyle Coward, Delson Coward, and Christopher Coward; McKenzie's father, Glenn Lott Jr.; step-daughter, Brandi Lott Williams; and two granddaughters, Phoebe and Baleigh.

A reception to celebrate the life of Sabra's life will be held on Sunday, January 17, 2021, at 5 pm at The Farm at Ridgeway, 3248 US-21, Ridgeway, SC 29130. A private gathering will be held prior and may be viewed on Sabra's tribute page at ShivesFuneralHome.com. Shives Funeral Home, Trenholm Road Chapel, is assisting the family.

With every fond memory of Sabra, laughter is sure to follow.

“ Such a beautiful soul. This is a Bubbles pic she signed for my son Donovan in the early 90s at Fantasy Homes. She said “you're my precious angel”
January 13 was Donovan's birthday.
She was an amazing person with a bigger than life personality. So very sorry for your loss.

“ I feel lucky to have known Sabra and to have spent time with her in college and after. What fun suitemate and friend who could make the most mundane everyday occurrence hilarious. I don't think I ever laughed more than when I was around Sabra! As many others have written here, she must be putting on quite a show up there! Peas and carrots! Please know how sorry I am for her family's and friend's loss. This makes me so sad but reminds me of all the happy funny times with that crazy character! Love to you all, Sudie Daves Thomas

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Sabra's family during this most difficult time. I worked with Sabra's father, Rudy, at SCE&G, then taught Sabra 6th grade math at E. L. Wright where her mother, Anne, served as the district nurse. I remember Sabra as a beautiful outgoing student! May the good Lord watch over her family and keep them in peace.

“ "Sabra Boo-Boo-Boo," was such a beautiful person; inside and out. Sabra could/would make me laugh even when I didn't want to..... I will miss her sliding down the hallway in her chair; just to say 'hey Linda Boo-Boo-Boo.' She will truly be missed. It saddens me deeply that she's no longer with us physically. She brought so much joy to those who knew and loved her; especially to me. My friendship with Sabra grew closer over the past year; I will forever be thankful to God for that.

I hope Sabra's family, along with Alpha Columbia will find comfort in the following scripture:

2nd Corinthians 5:8 'We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.'

Sleep in peace, Sabra...Love you!

“ My sincere condolences to the family of our gone to soon, Sabra. Working with Sabra, no two days were ever the same, I waited for her humorous antics!! I truly believe she had an affect on everyone's lives she came across. No matter what she was going through, she always tried to be positive and shared that energy with all she knew. I've known Sabra well over 15 years, and there was never a time I didn't have a smile or was laughing as she walked away. Laughter is known to be almost like medicine, and "Dr. Sabra" prescribed plenty prescriptions of joy and laughter to us all. You will be dearly missed. Rest in Peace dear Sabra, take your rest!.

“ When I met Sabra, she was 27 years old. I'd not met anyone like her before, nor have I since! A beautiful person inside and out, her humor and vibrant spirit brought smiles to so many faces. You never knew what might spontaneously come out of her mouth, but it was sure to make you laugh and/or smile. Anyone in a bad mood couldn't be in one long with Sabra (a.k.a. Bubbles) around! Condolences to her family and friends as you navigate this heartbreaking loss. She was truly one-of-a-kind and will be missed but always remembered by the countless people she touched along the way!
