“ Woody was the epitome of honesty, integrity and Christian example. He gave me my first job and his knowledge and wisdom set the example for my future. I shall always be indebted to him. May God continue to bless and comfort his lovely daughters in the coming days.

“ Woody was truly a gem of a guy! Working with him at First National Bank of SC, he taught us so much about integrity, accuracy and organization. Woody also had a sense of humor which made it all a tad fun too. We know he is in a much better place now and reunited with his wife, and we must take great solace in that belief. We offer prayers for his family and share many prayers with them too. Woody will be sorely missed yet we know he is at peace now. Well done by another faithful servant!

“ More than 60 years ago Woody and Nell led the high school fellowship group at the old Forest Drive Baptist Church. We became friends then and after he and my family began attending North Trenholm Baptist Church in 1962. I left Columbia 60 years ago but usually saw Woody on visits there extending into the late 1980s. He had a strong influence on me in several ways. Memory eternal.

“ What incredible, competing feelings are filling our lives today. While on the one hand, we are all grieved by the loss of such a warrior and teacher who has helped shape so many of us "into the conformity of Christ" through his God-inspired teaching and life. And we are blessed and joyful to know that Woody and Nell have now been reunited, and he is hearing those very special words from Christ, "Well done my good and faithful servant."

Praise be to God for His gift to us for 50+ years of faithful, dedicated and loving teaching of the Word. He has changed all of our lives by pointing us in the right direction, and our love for him and Nell will continue until we are all reunited!

Please accept our love for you all as the God of Hope comforts us all in this time of need.

“ Woody would tell us something is not lost if you know where it is.
We did not lose Woody because we know where he is. He is in heaven and we will see him again.
We will miss his teaching on Sunday and we will miss his friendship.
Much love to his family.

“ I cannot grieve in our loss of Woody because he is with his Savior whom he served so well, and united with his beloved wife Nell. Bob and I cherished our relationship with this friend. Our prayers are with the girls and their family whom we have loved through the years.

With the assurance of my prayers,
